Harvest Gourmet Galley Information

1. The Harvest Gourmet Galley is intended to showcase exhibits and products specific to the art of cooking, gourmet food, and food preparation. Exhibitors with products such as pre-packaged and low risk food items, culinary equipment, and cooking gadgets will be considered for this area.
2. Gourmet Galley exhibit fees will include the purchase of a temporary food facility permit issued by the County of Sacramento, if needed. Exhibitors must ensure that their space adheres to all of the county requirements applicable for low risk and pre-packaged food sales.
3. Exhibitors must provide their own tables, chairs and display equipment. Harvest themed decorations are encouraged. A Harvest Festival t-shirt will be awarded to the exhibitor with the most festive looking booth space. Decision of the judges is final.
4. Electricity is available on a first come first serve basis. Please note on your application if you are requesting electricity.
5. Exhibitors interested in demonstrating their products may be added to the Galley Kitchen Demonstration Schedule. Additional details on this opportunity are available from festival staff.

Selection Process

1. A panel of culinary professionals will judge the applications.
2. Selection will be based on quality and unique gourmet appeal.
3. To be included in the selection process, applications, photos and product information must be received by August 27, 2004.
4. Applicants will be notified during the first week in September of their acceptance into the exhibit area.
5. Photos will be returned if applications are not accepted. Exhibitors accepted may pick up their photos at the conclusion of the Festival.

Registration Procedure

1. In order for your application to be accepted you will need a seller's permit number issued by the State Board of Equalization (916-227-6700)
2. Make checks payable to Elk Grove CSD Parks and Recreation. Return application, photos, product information, and payment by August 27 to:
